

I Am

I am sporty, thoughtful and unsure of myself
I wonder if the world is as cruel as I make it to be and how long the human race will survive
I hear cruel thoughts and conflicts
I see the inhabitants of the world wasting and the people fighting
I want world peace and eternal life for everyone
I am sporty, thoughtful and unsure of myself

I love my family
I feel pain for the people suffering and pleasure that im still alive
I touch everything I can so i can better understand it
I imagine world peace
I worry about my life, and the lives of others around me
I cry when i realize that everyone is not treated the same

I understand nothing as well as I want to
I say "we can't live later, so live now!"
I dream about death, and how much better the world could be
I try to do my best in everything I try
I hope someday I can make the world a better place
I am sporty, thoughtful and unsure of myself

I am JOHN

I am magical, unsure and headstrong
I wonder If ill win and if Hermione likes me
I hear magical spells and gremlins
I see people dying and unicorns
I want to stop being a wizard and start being normal
I am magical, unsure and headstrong

I love Cho Chang
I feel agonized when I am hurt, and greatness when I defeat Voldemort
I imagine being great
I worry about my life and the life of others
I cry when I think all is lost

I understand nothing since I became a wizard
I say" Voldemort"
I dream that my nightmares will end
I try to defeat voldemort
I hope someday Ill defeat Voldemort
I am magical. unsure and headstrong

I am HARRY POTTER
